

The NAF Report - Commentary

Choose Month
October 2021

The NAF Report is a monthly summary of the NAF registered tournaments and games. For an interactive version and other analysis visit <https://public.tableau.com/profile/mike.sann0638.davies#!/>

The data has limitations - there is no easily accessible information on whether tournaments have tiers, what the TV is and what stars are used in particular rosters.

The commentary below changes depending on the month, starting from October 2021. The win ratio used in the data is $(Wins + 0.5 \times Draws) / Games$.

Underworld continued to dominate in October, winning the two largest tournaments and maintaining the greater than 60% win ratio. This is generally due to swarming giving them more players on the pitch and the use of Hakflem and Morg 'n' Thorg.

Those few who used Khorne in one of the last months before the official GW roster is released had a good month of it with a 66% win ratio - it will be interesting to see how common they become and what happens to the stats over the next few months.

Goblins will be lording it over their greenskin chums as Black Orcs take the bottom spot this month with only a 38% win ratio. Vampires and Nobility continue to be poor - the possible Vampire renaissance as people learn to use them is still to develop, if it ever does?

Halflings took a large tournament this month of 42 players, but as far as I know they or Ogres are still to win a 6 game tournament of more than 40 people - will this record fall in the next 6 months or so?

As a side note, we are continuing to see a few "BB Classic" games - mostly in France, Spain and Canada. Will try to find out if this is a bug in the system or whether there are strongholds resisting the change to BB2020!
